DID YOU FILE YOUR INCOME TAX?

Even if you make no money, you should file a tax return each year. If you do not file your taxes you CANNOT get government benefits such as:

Federal Income Tax Credits:

GST Credit

This is a tax-free quarterly payment that helps individuals/families with low or modest incomes to offset all or part of the GST or HST they pay.

Working Income Tax Benefit

This is a refundable tax credit for working people with low incomes.

Provincial (MB) Income Tax Credits:

Personal Tax Credit – a credit for low-income Manitobans and their dependents.

Education Property Tax Credit – for those who pay rent or property taxes in Manitoba. Seniors may qualify for additional amounts.

Primary Caregiver Tax Credit – for people who provide ongoing voluntary care and support to family members, friends or neighbours who require help in their home.

Tuition Fee Income Tax Rebate – for graduates of post-secondary programs (after December 31, 2006) who live and pay taxes in Manitoba.

Child Tax Benefits (CTB):

These are monthly payments to help support your children. You may have applied for child benefits when you asked for your child's birth certificate. If you haven't applied, you can do this by completing the form RC66-Canada Child Benefits Application and sending it to Canada Revenue. You can get a copy of the form by calling 1-800-387-1193 or online at <http://www.cra-arc.gc.ca/benefits/>.

*Let Canada Revenue know if your marital status changes by sending in form RC65-Marital Status Change. This will make sure your CTB and GST benefits are correctly calculated based on your new situation. Get a copy of this form online at <http://www.cra-arc.gc.ca/formspubs/tpcs/bnfts-eng.html> or by calling 1-800-959-8281.

Get help with your taxes:

Community Volunteer Income Tax Program (CVITP). Eligible low-income individuals with simple tax situations can have their taxes done for FREE from mid-February to the end of April. Services are subject to availability of volunteers. Browse www.cra-arc.gc.ca/volunteer or call the CRA general enquiries line at 1-800-959-8281, to learn more about what types of returns are not eligible. During the tax season (Feb-Apr), call the CVITP program at 204-989-1912 to find a volunteer tax clinic near you.

EMPLOYMENT & INCOME ASSISTANCE

Employment & Income Assistance (EIA) is a program that provides financial help to Manitobans with no other way to provide for their basic needs. For people who are able to work, EIA can help you get back to work by providing supports to employment. You can apply for EIA by calling 1-877-812-0014.

For more information on EIA benefits and other supports please see:
www.gov.mb.ca/jec/eia/eiafacts/index.html

EIA provides a range of benefits to help meet needs like:

- Basic assistance – help with food, clothing, household needs
- Income assistance for persons with disabilities – additional financial support to help offset some of the costs of living with a disability in the community
- Rent Assist shelter benefits – help with rental costs
- Health needs – help with prescription eye or dental needs
- Medical supplies and equipment not available through another program
- Special health-related diet allowances, when prescribed
- Transportation costs for education, employment or health-related needs
- Special needs – like the costs of beds/bedding in exceptional circumstances

Rent Assist – Rent Assist is a monthly shelter-related financial benefit to help low-income Manitobans who pay rent in the private market and are required to spend a large portion of their income on rent. Rent Assist benefit amounts have been increased up to 75% of median market rent. Manitobans living in eligible rental or board and room spaces, who do not receive EIA, may receive a monthly benefit that will vary depending on the annual income of each adult (in the household). To apply for non-EIA Rent Assist, you can download the following application form:

http://www.gov.mb.ca/jec/eia/pubs/rentassist_appform.pdf or call Provincial Services at 204-945-2197 in Winnipeg or 1-877-587-6224 toll-free to have an application form mailed to you.

For those receiving EIA, maximum monthly shelter benefits of $511 for single individuals and $758 for a family of four may be available to eligible Manitobans living in unsubsidized housing. The amount will be based on number of family members, and whether utility costs (ex: heat, electricity, water) are included in the rent. Rent Assist is included with monthly EIA payments.

The regular meetings create an opportunity to discuss policy changes, training opportunities, share resources and create joint materials. For more information contact <https://eianetwork.wordpress.com>

FAMILIES WITH CHILDREN

You may be eligible for other benefits in addition to the monthly Canada Child Tax Benefit:

Manitoba Child Benefit Program – This program provides a small amount of monthly financial assistance to low income families who are NOT on EIA, and also provides help with some of the costs of children’s prescription eyeglasses. Contact 1-800-563-8793 or go online to download an application at:

<http://www.gov.mb.ca/jec/eia/mcb/>

Healthy Baby Program – This is a two-part program that supports pregnant women, new parents and their babies through:

- The Manitoba Prenatal Benefit – a financial benefit that helps women buy healthy food while they are pregnant. You must be pregnant, live in Manitoba and have a family income of less than $32,000 to qualify.
- Healthy Baby Community Support Programs – offer free drop-in groups for pregnant women and their partners and parents with babies under the age of one where you learn about taking care of yourself and your baby. Snacks provided.

Go to <http://www.gov.mb.ca/healthychild/healthybaby/index.html> or call 204-945-1301 in Winnipeg or toll-free at 1-888-848-0140 elsewhere.

Manitoba Early Learning and Child Care – for help in paying eligible day care costs for low-income parents. Call 1-877-587-6224 for subsidy information services or get an online application at www.gov.mb.ca/fs/childcare/about Resource Assistance for Youth (RaY) is a non-profit street-level agency working with street-entrenched and homeless youth up to the age of 29. RaY is non-judgmental and non-partisan, employing a harm reduction approach. Call 204-783-5617 or visit 125 Sherbrook Street. Find us on the web at www.rayinc.ca or email info@rayinc.ca

PERSONS LIVING WITH DISABILITIES

If you are not able to earn income because of health issues or a disability, there are some government programs that might help you:

Canada Pension Plan – Disability Benefits. If you worked and contributed to CPP you may be able to get a disability pension until you turn 65.

Call 1-800-277-9914 to have an application kit mailed to you or apply at:

<http://www.servicecanada.gc.ca/eng/services/pensions/cpp/disability/benefit/index.shtml>

Employment and Income Assistance – Disability Benefits Persons with disabilities receive additional EIA benefits, including the Income Assistance for Persons with Disabilities (IAPD) of $105 monthly. If prescribed by a health practitioner, persons with disabilities may be eligible for:

- Special diets due to medical problems
- Coverage for transportation or phone costs due to medical needs
- Additional health-related/medical supplies/equipment and not covered under any other program

Go to <http://www.gov.mb.ca/jec/eia/eiafacts/index.html> or read the brochure: http://www.gov.mb.ca/jec/eia/pubs/eia_disability.pdf for more details.

You might qualify for additional tax breaks:

Disability Tax Credit – This is a tax credit that can reduce your taxes or be transferred to a spouse/partner to reduce theirs. The Canada Revenue Agency must approve the credit before you can make a claim.

Working Income Tax Benefit – Disability Supplement – This additional refundable amount tops up the working income tax benefit if you are also eligible for the disability tax credit.

Refundable Medical Expense Supplement – This refundable credit can be claimed on the tax return of working individuals with low incomes and high medical expenses.

Registered Disability Savings Plan – This program allows you to save for the future without losing any of your EIA-D benefits. The government will match your savings up to 300%. Even if you have a low income and cannot put money in your plan, the government may give you $1000 each year. Find more information at www.cra-arc.gc.ca/disability

*Note: If you are blind or partially-sighted, you can get CRA publications and personalized correspondence in Braille, large print, electronic text, or MP3 by going to www.cra-arc.gc.ca/alternate or by calling 1-800-959-8281.

SENIORS AND 55 PLUS

Canada Pension Plan – Retirement (CPP-R) – if you worked and paid into CPP, you can start getting a retirement pension as early as age 60. CPP is paid monthly based on how much you paid into the plan.

Old Age Security (OAS) – Anyone who has lived in Canada for at least 10 years can get some OAS starting the month after they turn 65. If you have lived here 40 years or more you should get the full monthly pension. Apply for the OAS six months before your 65th birthday.

Guaranteed Income Supplement (GIS) – A non-taxable benefit to top up OAS for low-income seniors. The monthly amount depends on the annual income from the previous tax year. Eligibility for GIS is reviewed each year when you file your tax return; it is automatically renewed for seniors who qualify.

Spousal Allowance/Allowance for the Survivor – Extra benefits paid to a 60 to 64 year old spouse or common-law partner of an OAS recipient or to a survivor. The monthly amount depends on yearly household income and is reviewed each year when you file your tax return. It is automatically renewed for those who qualify.

For more information on the programs listed above, contact Service Canada at 1-800-O-CANADA (1-800-622-6232) or online at: www.servicecanada.gc.ca

55 Plus – A Manitoba program that provides a financial supplement to low-income seniors 55 years or older. The payment is made four times a year based on income shown on the previous year's tax return. 55 Plus benefits may be available if you receive only the health care benefits portion of income assistance.

Call 1-800-563-8793 or go to: <http://www.gov.mb.ca/jec/eia/55plus/index.html>

Rent Assist – Rent Assist is a monthly shelter-related financial benefit to help low-income Manitobans who pay rent in the private market and are required to spend a large portion of their income on rent. Rent Assist benefit amounts have been increased up to 75% of median market rent. To apply for non-EIA Rent Assist, download the following application form: http://www.gov.mb.ca/jec/eia/pubs/rentassist_appform.pdf or call Provincial Services at 204-945-2197 in Winnipeg or 1-877-587-6224 toll-free to have an application form mailed to you.
